Re: Revision of the Commission's Program Access Rules, et al., MB Docket Nos. 12-68, 07-18, 05-192

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On September 20, 2012, Aparna Sridhar and the undersigned of Google Inc. (separately and collectively the "Google representatives") participated in a telephone conversation with Dave Grimaldi, Chief of Staff and Media Legal Advisor to Commissioner Mignon Clyburn. The undersigned also spoke in separate conversations on September 20, 2012 with Zachary Katz, Chief of Staff of the Federal Communications Commission, and Alex Hoehn-Saric, Policy Director for Commissioner Jessica Rosenworcel, as well as on September 21, 2012 with Nicholas Degani, Wireline Legal Advisor to Commissioner Ajit Pai.

The Google representatives provided an update on the deployment of Google Fiber in Kansas City, Kansas and Kansas City, Missouri. The Google representatives discussed the success of Google Fiber's pre-registration process, including how 180 out of 202 Fiberhoods had met pre-registration goals and would receive Google Fiber. The Google representatives also noted that Google Fiber had plans going forward to partner with local community organizations to provide digital literacy grants and training to historically underserved areas of the Kansas City community.

The Google representatives indicated that customer sign-ups in the first Fiberhoods had begun and described the various Google Fiber product offerings available to consumers. The Google representatives noted that they continue to add channels to their Google Fiber TV offering. They discussed the importance of being able to provide customers with access to must-have live regional sports programming and the difficulty of obtaining this programming. The Google representatives inquired about the continuing ability of competitors and new entrants to access essential regional sports programming as the Commission considers action in the above-captioned proceeding.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions.

Regards,
